The Secretariat of the United Nations presents its compliments to the Permanent Missions of Member States to the United Nations and invites Member States to recommend qualified individuals to serve as experts on the Panel of Experts on Somalia. The Panel of Experts on Somalia, which is comprised of six experts, operates under the direction of the Security Council Committee pursuant to resolution 751 (1992) concerning Somalia.

Nominations are sought for expert positions on the Panel of Experts on Somalia that will become vacant in December 2020. Recommended candidates should possess a minimum of ten years of progressively responsible experience, with a minimum of three years of field experience, in the below mentioned relevant areas of expertise and competence:

- humanitarian affairs;
- regional/maritime;
- armed groups;
- armed groups/natural resources;
- finance;
- arms.

The selection process will include an interview and other assessment methods to evaluate candidates' suitability. Sanctions experts are selected on the basis of demonstrated expertise in the relevant area of work, experience and educational background, with due regard to equitable geographic representation and gender balance. English and French are the working languages of the United Nations.

Appointment duration is in accordance with the mandate of the expert panel established by the Security Council. Experts are hired as consultants in line with the United Nations' administrative instruction concerning consultants and individual contractors (ST/AI/2013/4). For further information on the Panel of Experts on Somalia, please visit:
<https://www.un.org/securitycouncil/sanctions/751/work-and-mandate>

As the application links have been updated, please apply through the updated links below. Member States are invited to submit the names and curricula vitae (CVs) of their nominated candidates, with contact information for three references, to the Security Council Affairs Division in the Department of Political and Peacebuilding Affairs, United Nations no later than 28 October 2020, through the following e-mail address: sc-751-committee@un.org.

In addition, Member States should request their nominated candidates to apply online (application links have been updated; any candidates who applied through the previous links are asked to re-apply) at:

(<https://careers.un.org/lbw/jobdetail.aspx?id=141667&Lang=en-US>) (humanitarian affairs);
