OFFICE OF UNITED NATIONS AND INTERNATIONAL ORGANIZATIONS

EXTREMELY URGENT

12 March 2021

Sir:

Enclosed is a copy of a Note from the United Nations Secretariat inviting Member States to recommend qualified individuals to serve as experts on the Panel of Experts¹ established pursuant to resolution 2206 (2015) on South Sudan, subject to the extension of the Panel's mandate by the Security Council in May 2021.

Nominations are sought for expert positions on the Panel of Experts on South Sudan that will become vacant in July 2021. Recommended candidates should possess a minimum of ten (10) years of progressively responsible experience, with a minimum of three (3) years of field experience, in the following relevant areas of expertise and competence:

- Arms;
- Armed groups and regional issues;
- Finance;
- Humanitarian affairs; and
- Natural resources.

Experts are selected on the basis of expertise, relevant area of work, experience and educational background, with due regard to equitable geographic representation and gender balance, and hired as consultants in line with the UN's administrative instruction concerning consultants and individual contractors. Nominated candidates are required to apply online through the links specified in the enclosed Note.

Only applications received through the online platform will be considered. Nominations must be submitted not later than 04 April 2021 to email address sc-2206-committee@un.org (copy furnished unio.div5@dfa.gov.ph).

With my best regards.

Very truly yours,
For the Secretary of Foreign Affairs

The Secretariat of the United Nations presents its compliments to the Permanent Missions of Member States to the United Nations and invites Member States to recommend qualified individuals to serve as experts on the Panel of Experts established pursuant to resolution 2206 (2015) on South Sudan, subject to the extension of the Panel's mandate by the Security Council in May 2021.

Nominations are sought for expert positions on the Panel of Experts on South Sudan that will become vacant in July 2021. Recommended candidates should possess a minimum of ten years of progressively responsible experience, with a minimum of three years of field experience, in the below mentioned areas of expertise and competence:

- Arms
- Armed Groups and Regional Issues
- Finance
- Humanitarian Affairs
- Natural Resources

The selection process will include an interview and other assessment methods to evaluate candidates' suitability. Sanctions experts are selected on the basis of demonstrated expertise in the relevant area of work, experience and educational background, with due regard to equitable geographic representation and gender balance. English and French are the working languages of the United Nations. For these positions, proficiency and demonstrated drafting ability in English is required.

Appointment duration is in accordance with the mandate of the expert panel established by the Security Council. Experts are hired as consultants in line with the United Nations' administrative instruction concerning consultants and individual contractors (ST/AI/2013/4). For further information on the Panel of Experts established pursuant to resolution 2206 (2015) on South Sudan, please visit: <https://www.un.org/securitycouncil/sanctions/2206/panel-of-experts/work-mandate>.

Member States are invited to submit the names and curricula vitae (CVs) of their nominated candidates, with contact information for three references, to the Security Council Affairs Division in the Department of Political and Peacebuilding Affairs, United Nations no later than 4 April 2021, through the following e-mail address: sc-2206-committee@un.org.

In addition, Member States should request their nominated candidates to apply online, by 4 April 2021, at:

<https://careers.un.org/lbw/jobdetail.aspx?id=151318&Lang=en-US> (Arms)

<https://careers.un.org/lbw/jobdetail.aspx?id=151311&Lang=en-US> (Armed Groups and Regional Issues)
