HON. MARIA ANTONIA YULO LOYZAGA
Secretary
Department of Environment and Natural Resources
Visayas Ave., Diliman, Quezon City

Dear Secretary Loyzaga:

Greetings from the Civil Service Commission (CSC)!

In line with our steadfast commitment to environmental stewardship, the CSC places great importance on actively contributing to environmental sustainability. We recognize that the concerted efforts of all government employees in initiatives that promote environmental well-being can significantly enhance the conservation of our natural resources.

In this regard, the Commission is honored to support this year's International Coastal Clean-up as a partner of the Department of Environment and Natural Resources (DENR). As a dedicated partner, the CSC will endeavor to encourage all its offices across various regions, as well as government agencies, to actively engage in and support the International Coastal Clean-up in close coordination with their respective DENR Regional Offices.

To facilitate the coordination and preparation of this partnership, the Office of Director Victoria F. Esber of the CSC-National Capital Region shall reach out to your office. Should you require any further assistance, you may coordinate with the Office of Director Esber through their telephone number at (02) 8781-5864.

Thank you.

Sincerely,
