Dear Usec. Teh, Usec. Leones, and Asec. Uy,

Good day! Thank you for meeting with us last Friday alongside the Secretary and the Ambassador. We had a productive discussion on various topics that are priorities for both the UK and the Philippines, and we are eager to continue our partnership and support through our programs.

One key point raised during our meeting was on enhancing technical skills and knowledge on sustainability topics to address emerging priorities related to climate adaptation, blue economy, and just energy transition, among others. Our Ambassador mentioned the Chevening scholarship as an opportunity for this and proposed holding an information session for DENR. We would like to schedule this session with you in the coming weeks, keeping in mind that the application deadline for the next batch is November 8. This session can be conducted in hybrid format.

In the meantime, I'm sharing some materials on Chevening, for your reference. I'm also copying @Jedd Ivan Manjares, our Chevening focal person at the Embassy, who will coordinate with you/your office and address any questions you may have.

Thank you very much.

Best regards,

Ayesha
