Special Order
No. 205
Series of 1981

SUBJECT: Social Resource Management Briefing for Region I
Officials in Baguio City on July 24, 1981

In connection with the Natural Resources Management Center's objective to solicit the support of regional officials in developing a systematic process for addressing public issues in decision-making, the Natural Resources Management Center is hereby authorized to conduct a briefing on Social Resource Management for regional officials of Region I on July 24, 1981 in Baguio City.

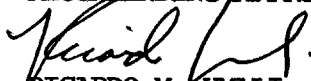

This briefing aims to explain the significance of a socially responsive natural resource management system and discuss procedures to make its implementation possible.

Expected participants are regional directors, assistant directors and planning officers of the Bureau of Forest Development, Mines, Lands and Fisheries and Aquatic Resources.

The regional director of the BFD shall arrange for the venue of the briefing. Expenses for transportation and allowances of participants and lecturers shall be chargeable against the funds of their respective bureau or agency subject to the usual accounting and auditing procedures.

JOSE J. LEIDO, JR.
Minister
