MINISTRY OF NATURAL RESOURCES

1 March 1982

SPECIAL ORDER
No. 92
Series of 1982

SUBJECT: Granting Authority to the Natural Resources Management Center to sponsor a Natural Resources Management Forum

In the interest of the service and in order to formulate strategies and policies on the rational management and conservation of our natural resources, authority is hereby granted to the Natural Resources Management Center to sponsor a Natural Resources Management Forum.

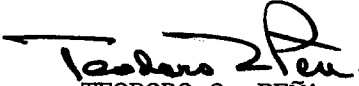

The Forum shall serve as a venue for the discussion and analysis of resource problems, strategies and operational plans and whereby a multi-disciplinary audience of scientists, academicians, and decision-makers can interact to formulate management schemes for the country's natural resources.

The Forum will be an affair wherein noted and distinct personalities on resource management can present technical papers based on their researches and professional experiences and discuss issues and/or special topics which are of special interest and importance to policy-makers/decision-makers. There will be a panel of resource persons to give initial reaction and analysis of the technical paper/issue/special topic presented in each forum. There will also be around 70 invited participants from the academic, scientific, and decision-making sector involved in resource management.

The NRMCM is further authorized to publish the proceedings and analysis of the participants' interaction including those of the resource persons.

The Forum shall start by the last Thursday of March 1982 and will continue every last Thursday of the month thereafter or as the need arises.

All expenses incidental to the sponsorship of the Natural Resources Management Forum shall be chargeable against NRMF funds, subject to the usual accounting and auditing rules and regulations.
