DENR SPECIAL ORDER
No. 99- 324

SUBJECT : Reactivation of the Forest Management and Wood Industry Technical Advisory Committee

In the interest of the service and in order to provide indicative policies, strategies and programs necessary for the sustainable management and development of forest resources through the continuous consultation and collaboration with the private sector, the Forest Management and Wood Industry Technical Advisory Committee created under DENR Special Order No. 95-331 is herein reactivated to be composed of five (5) members each from the Forest Management Bureau (FMB) and the Philippine Wood Producers Association (PWPA); and three (3) from the Planning and Policy Studies Office (PPSO). In addition, FMB shall act as the Chairman of the Committee.

The Director of the FMB, the President of the PWPA and the Asec for PPSO shall designate their respective representatives who shall be members of the Committee.

The Committee shall act as a technical advisory body to the Secretary of the DENR on policies, strategies, plan and programs related to the sustainable development and management of the forest resources and the proper direction of the forest-based industry.

The FMB shall act/perform as the Secretariat, who shall provide technical and administrative support to the committee.

This Order shall take effect immediately.
