DENR Special Order

No. 2000 - 930

Subject: Creation of the Project Management Office (PMO) for the Samar Island Biodiversity Project (SIBP)

In the interest of the service and implementation of the SIBP, a Project Management Office is hereby created for the project.

The PMO shall be composed of the following:

PAWB Assistant Director as National Project Director
RED for Region-8 as Program Manager, Concurrent PASU
Co-Project Manager
DENR-8 detailed program focal point

The Secretary of the DENR, Assistant Director of PAWB, and OIC-Director of IPICS-FASPO shall be the authorized signatories/co-signatories of financial documents of the project at the central office level. At the field level, the Regional Executive Director, concurrent Project Manager and PASU and his designated focal person to the project shall be the authorized signatories.

The National Project Director (PAWB Assistant Director) shall be responsible for monitoring and commitment of funds under budget lines until the relevant disbursements have been made, and the amounts recorded in the project account.

All expenses incurred by the PMO in pursuit of its tasks/responsibilities shall be chargeable against project funds subject to the accounting and auditing rules and regulations.

This order takes effect immediately and supersedes, modifies or amends any and all orders inconsistent herewith.
