

Republic of the Philippines
Department of Environment and Natural Resources
Visayas Avenue, Diliman, Quezon City
Telephone Nos: 97-66-26 to 36; 97-70-41 to 43

#199718

SEP 12 2001

SPECIAL ORDER
NO. 2001- 516

SUBJECT: AUTHORIZING THE ATTENDANCE OF SOME DENR EMPLOYEES TO A WOMEN INTENSIVE LABOR DEVELOPMENT: BASIC WOMEN'S AWARENESS SEMINAR (WILD-BWAS)

In the interest of the service and in response to the invitation of Labor Education And Research Network (LEARN), the following DENR employees are hereby authorized to attend the above-said seminar on official time. This will be held on July 12-13, 2001 at the Fabella Seminar House, #4 Acacia Lane, Mandaluyong City.

- 1) Natividad Eden Daliva – DENR Region 4
- 2) Elizabeth Tan – Economist, DENR Region 4
- 3) Marilyn Peña – Forest Ranger, CENRO Antipolo

The activity aims to increase the knowledge of women in terms of the issues affecting their lives as a worker; to make them more aware about Unionism and society; and improve them on how to socialize with other people.

All expenses to be incurred shall be chargeable against DENREU and LEARN funds.

This Order shall take effect during the above-mentioned dates.

PROF. ROGELIO V. PAGLOMUTAN
Assistant Secretary for Finance and Management Services