All Heads of Offices in the DENR Central Office are enjoined to extend their support and cooperation to the selected employees during their rehearsals that will start on 22 May 2023 and end in the day of the event, including Saturdays, Sundays and holidays.

The abovementioned participants and production team who rendered services during Saturdays, Sundays and holidays are entitled to compensatory time-off which is valid until 31 December 2023.

In the event that any participants encounter unforeseen circumstances preventing them from attending or is unable to join the presentation, a member of the production team can step in as a substitute to perform.

All expenses to be incurred by the above-mentioned employees shall be charged against DENR funds, subject to the usual accounting and auditing rules and regulations. The OIC-Chief of Strategic Alliance and Environmental Partnership Anne Hazel D. Javier is authorized to sign all documents related to the above activity.

This Order shall take effect immediately and shall be revoked until the duration of the event.
